

EUROPE GROUP MEETING 2013
TRONDHEIM
30.MAY -2. JUNE

Preliminary (March 31)
PROGRAMME

Thursday, May 30th

*Venue: Archbishop`s palace – Eystein`s Hall
Address: Bispegata 5, Trondheim*

Afternoon	Arrival at the hotels in Trondheim centre
15:00 – 16:00	Registration
17:00	Opening of an exhibition of stained glass from the Nidaros Cathedral, “The gift from the Swedish-Norwegian king Oscar 2” in Lavetthusene in the Archbishop`s palace
18:00	Welcome in Eystein`s Hall

The Archbishop`s palace is situated next to the Nidaros Cathedral in Trondheim center. It is the oldest standing profane building in Norway and dates back to 11.century.

continues next page

Friday, May 31th

Venue: Falstadsenteret

Address: Ekne, Skogn in Nord-Trøndelag

8:30 -10:00 Bus from Trondheim to Falstad

10:00 13:00 Seminar

"Painful Heritage, Human Rights and the Norwegian Culture of Memory: Falstad and Stiklestad"

13:00 14:00 Lunch

14:00 16:30 Seminar continues

16:30 18:00 Bus to Trondheim

Dinner

Falstadsenteret is a Norwegian memory site and a human rights center.

Falstadsenteret is located at a former school for "difficult boys" and later a prison camp under the Second World War.

Saturday 1. June:

Eystein`s Hall, Archbishop`s palace

9:00 18:00 Europe group meeting

Dinner

Sunday 2. June:

After the meeting and seminar it will be possible to take a trip to the World Heritage Site of Røros

8:30 11:00 Guided bus to Røros

Visit at Røros Mining Town and its Circumference - World Heritage Site. Presentation of the site in collaboration with the "Norwegian World Heritage Sites meeting".

Representatives from all the Norwegian World Heritage sites will have their annual meeting at Røros 2. -4. June. This arrangement will be held in Norwegian, but most people are well skilled in English and everyone is welcome to take part as observers.

Program ends approximately at 15:00

The bus goes back to Trondheim via Værnes airport. Delegates are also free to leave from Røros to Oslo by train or by plane in the afternoon.