

PRESENTATIONS AND CASE STUDIES

CASE STUDY PRESENTATIONS

AUSTRALIA	Tasmanian Wilderness and the Wet Tropics WHAs comparative study: Chrissy Grant, Principal Director, CTG Services; Deputy Chair of Federal Ministerial Indigenous Advisory Committee (Australia)
JORDAN	Wadi Rum WH Protected Area: Tarek Abulhawa, IUCN World Heritage Panel; IUCN World Commission on Protected Areas (Jordan)
KENYA	Sacred Mijikenda Kaya Forests: Approaches to Human Rights: Anthony Githitho, Senior Advisor, National Museum of Kenya, Nairobi-Mombasa (Kenya)
MALAYSIA	Kinabalu Park WHA relationship with surrounding communities: Amran Hamzah, Professor; Vice-Chair, IUCN TILCEPA (TILCEPA - Theme on Indigenous Peoples, Local Communities, Equity and Protected Area (Malaysia)
MEXICO	Sian Ka'an and Rights-Based Approaches: Julio Moure, Independent Consultant (Mexico)
NEPAL	Rights issues in World Heritage - a case study of Patan Monuments Zone of Kathmandu Valley World Heritage Site: Sudarshan Raj Tiwari, Professor of Architecture, Institute of Engineering Patan, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu (Nepal)
NORWAY	Alta World Heritage sites: Saminess, Representativity and Narratives of Colonization and Decolonization: Gro Birgit Ween, Associate Professor, Cultural History Museum, Oslo University (Norway)
PERU	Lima Historic Centre: Alberto Martorell, ICOMOS Peru, President; Professor of Law, incl. National University of Engineering (Peru)
REGIONAL SCOPE	Recognition of Sacred Natural Sites in World Heritage: Bas Verschuuren, Vice-chair, IUCN Specialist Group on Cultural and Spiritualist Values of Protected Areas (Netherlands)
INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP REPORT	“International Expert Workshop on the World Heritage Convention and Indigenous Peoples” - 20-21 September 2012 - Copenhagen, Denmark: Stefan Disko, Member, International Working Group for Indigenous Affairs (IWGIA), Copenhagen (Germany)

PERSPECTIVES

Building Capacity to support Rights-Based Approaches in the World Heritage Convention: Peter Bille Larsen, Consultant to the Project, Denmark/ Switzerland.

ICCROM Perspectives on rights-based approaches: Joseph King, ICCROM Unit Director.

IUCN Perspectives on rights-based approaches: Gonzalo Oviedo; Senior Social Advisor.

ICOMOS Perspectives on rights-based approaches: Carolina Castellanos, ICOMOS World Heritage Advisor, and Rohit Jigyasu, ICOMOS Executive Committee.

UNDP and Human Rights: Shireen Said, Chief Policy Advisor, UNDP NY.

NORAD experience with rights-based approaches: Stener Ekern, Associate Professor, National Centre for Human Rights, Oslo University, Norway.

World Heritage in Mexico: Cultural sites: Marion Woynar (member, ICOMOS France).

World Heritage in Israel and Palestine: Antoine Raffoul (member, ICOMOS UK).

World Heritage in Tunisia: Mustapha Khanoussi (President of ICOMOS Tunisia).