

Dear Friends of the Foundation,

We are glad to announce that in July 21st - 23rd, 2014, the international conference HERITAGE LEXICOGRAPHY as Supporting Tool for ICOMOS will be held in Florence, promoted by the Fondazione Romualdo Del Bianco in co-operation with the Ivanovo State University and the University of Florence.

The Conference will provide a forum for the exchange of ideas in the wide scope of topics. We are looking forward to meeting lexicographers, reference publishers, software developers, researchers, academicians, post-graduate students, and anyone with a lively interest in language and dictionary making.

The participation of specialists from your countries will be highly appreciated, that's why we'll be grateful to you for spreading this information and forwarding the present invitation to your colleagues and professional networks.
